Christmas is like a black and white world. There are things that absolutely have to, and things that have to, and then there're things that are just a balance. Obviously I'm on the black side. Christmas, the day of mourning, and mourning for all your blessings. I don't make it forced to celebrate it, but I do look upon the day for and make my wish every year. Merry, if Santa exists, then why does he never ever grant my wish? I'm not a bad little girl. "Dear god, will you ever grant my prayer? even after I properly get you at least 30 cards a year?" - The idiot
